

109TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 475

To congratulate the National Organization of Women on its 40th anniversary.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 14, 2006

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

To congratulate the National Organization of Women on its 40th anniversary.

Whereas the National Organization of Women (in this resolution referred to as “NOW”) is committed to the advancement of equality and women’s rights;

Whereas NOW continues the legacy of the foremothers of the women’s movement, who include Alice Paul, Sojourner Truth, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, and Harriet Tubman;

Whereas NOW was founded on June 30, 1966 in Washington, District of Columbia, by women attending the Third National Conference of the Commission on the Status of Women;

Whereas Betty Freidan, author of “The Feminine Mystique”, was one of the original 28 founders and its first President;

Whereas the late Reverend Pauli Murray, the first African-American female Episcopal priest, contributed to NOW’s original Statement of Purpose, which begins: “The purpose of NOW is to take action to bring women into full participation in the mainstream of American society now, exercising all privileges and responsibilities thereof in truly equal partnership with men.”;

Whereas NOW pursues the realization of the universal values of equality, opportunity, justice, respect, empowerment, freedom;

Whereas these goals will be achieved through legal, political, social and economic change;

Whereas NOW is committed to fighting all oppression, understanding that sexism, racism, and homophobia are interconnected;

Whereas NOW struggles to eliminate discrimination and harassment in the workplace, schools, the justice system, and all other sectors of society and to end all forms of violence against women;

Whereas NOW has been involved in landmark occasions in women’s history, including President Lyndon B. Johnson’s Executive Order 11375 in 1967, which extended discrimination to include gender, and the 1973 Supreme Court decision on Roe v. Wade, establishing a woman’s right to safe and legal abortion; and

Whereas NOW celebrates its 40th anniversary with 550,000 supporting members, and with more than 500 local and campus affiliates in all 50 States and the District of Columbia, dedicated to equality and justice: Now, therefore, be it
